Miss Inez Sweeney has returned to Washington from a trip to Niagara Falls, St. Louis, and a number of other places of interest.

Col. and Mrs. William Wheatley, who have been at White Sulphur Springs since early spring, will remain there until about December 1.

Capt. and Mrs. J. Lemly have as their guests Major and Mrs. James Parker and their sons. Major Parker, who is on leave is awaiting orders. Mrs. Lemly returned from a wedding tour from Eaglesmere, Pa., where she passed the summer.

Major Parker's mother, Mrs. Richard C. Parker, returned to Washington Thursday from Atlantic City and has taken an apartment at the Grafton for the winter months.

Mrs. Richard H. Townsend was the honor guest at a luncheon and bridge party which Mrs. Hartman gave Saturday at White Sulphur Springs.

The minister from Siam and Lady Prabha Karavangse will return to the legation in Washington Wednesday. They have spent the summer at Gloucester, Mass.

Married This Month.

First Lieut. Harry C. Blair, of the Medical Reserve Corps, United States army, stationed at Washington, was married at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon, September 21, to Miss Rachel M. Nuttall, of 215 West North Avenue, Northside, Pittsburgh, Pa. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nuttall, Jr., the marriage being read by the Rev. Dr. A. J. Bonnell, of the Sandusky Street Baptist Church. Lieutenant and Mrs. Blair left for Harpersville, Va., for a two-week stay with Lieutenant Blair's parents, after which they will spend a wedding tour through the East, ending in Washington, where they will live.

Lieutenant Blair for the last three years had been stationed at Harpersville, N. M., as surgeon for the Seventh, Ninth and Twelfth United States Cavalry. He has since been transferred to Washington, where he will be connected with the hospital at the Soldiers' Home. He is a graduate of the University of Louisville, Ky. Miss Nuttall was graduated from Washington Seminary, Washington, Pa.

Miss Eleanor Virginia Haycock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Hunter Haycock, and Elgin P. Dyer, will be married on Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock in the West Washington Baptist Church. The ceremony will be performed by the pastor of the church, the Rev. B. D. Gave. Miss Edith Louise Haycock, sister of the bride, will be the maid of honor, and the best man will be Ernest I. Kessler. After the wedding the bride and bridegroom will make their home in Washington.
